

R6 1V1 LEAGUE

POWERED BY

LONZO'S

We are thrilled to introduce the R6 1v1 League Powered by Lonzo's—a specially designed league that offers the perfect opportunity for players to make the most of their PA Days. This league is more than just games; it's about enhancing basketball IQ, boosting mental toughness, and refining individual skills.

WHY THE R6 1V1 LEAGUE IS ESSENTIAL FOR YOUR CHILD'S GROWTH

On PA Days, when there's no school, it's crucial to engage kids in activities that challenge them both physically and mentally. The R6 1v1 League provides a structured environment where players can improve their basketball skills while staying focused and active. This is the ideal setup for players looking to sharpen their competitive edge and enhance their readiness for the Rep season.

GAME FORMAT

The R6 1v1 League is designed to push players out of their comfort zones, helping them think on their feet while competing in a fast-paced environment.

1v1 Matchups Focused on skill refinement and tactical thinking, these matchups encourage players to elevate their game on both ends of the court.

4 Dribble Limit Designed to foster quick decision-making, players must think strategically and make every move count, simulating real game situations.

5-Minute Timer Short, intense games train players to maintain focus under pressure, preparing them for the quick decisions needed during actual competitions.

Scoring Games played to 11 points, must win by 2.
1 point for regular baskets, 2 points for shots beyond the 3-point line.

This game format encourages players to focus on smart play, quick thinking, and improving their overall court awareness.

LEAGUE STRUCTURE

The R6 1v1 League is built to enhance your child's basketball IQ, teaching them to adapt quickly, analyze their performance, and prepare for the demands of the Rep season.

- Standings & Leaderboard: Players' standings will be regularly updated, creating a sense of achievement and healthy competition.
- Championship Game: Top 2 Players compete for the title, with the rest aiming for leaderboard progression.
- Bronze Match: 3rd and 4th place players will also face off, giving all participants meaningful competition throughout the season.

This structure helps players develop game-time strategies, understand matchups, and learn from their performance week to week—key skills for Rep season success.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

In addition to skill development and competition, the R6 1v1 League provides players with high-quality basketball gear and opportunities for recognition:

- Customized R6 Uniform: Reversible jerseys that can be used for practices and competitions.
- Performance Awards:
 - Gold Medal Winners receive new shoes.
 - Silver & Bronze Medalists receive $50 Lonzo's Gift Cards.
 - MVP Award for top performers.
 - Special recognition for Best Crossover, Best Layup, and Best Shot.
 - A Massive Prize for the first player to complete a dunk.

These incentives keep players motivated, giving them more than just the thrill of competition—they get tangible rewards for their hard work and dedication.

WHY PA DAYS MATTER

PA Days are a perfect opportunity for players to get ahead in their development. Instead of staying idle or missing out on valuable practice time, the R6 1v1 League offers a full day of basketball activities designed to enhance their mental and physical toughness. Here's why this league is the best way to spend PA Days:

1. Basketball IQ Growth: Focused, competitive environments help players develop a deeper understanding of the game, improving decision-making, court vision, and overall awareness.
2. Mental Toughness: Playing multiple games under pressure conditions helps strengthen resilience and concentration—key attributes for success during the Rep season.
3. Skill Enhancement: This league pushes each player to refine their individual skills—whether it's ball handling, shooting, or defensive techniques—giving them the tools they need to excel in their Rep team.
